Gentlemen

Your letter of the 17th to hand and in reply will say in regards to coin. You want me to put a price on it that I cannot do as I do not know what it is worth but it must have a stand and price among coin collectors. I know the coin is valuable - this is the only one I ever saw of this kind - and its being a genuine one is shown by all indications but I bought it in a place where they could not imitate it if they tried for any amount money. I bought it just one year and a half ago while traveling in the east a place called Orfa in Turkey. I bought it from a farmer after much bartering as they did not want to part with it. I cannot say any thing more except that you have the coin in safety

In coming over. I undertook to take it to the the British Museum but I was sick or did not stop but came right through

So if you want to make me an offer I will consider it among the others.

In your letter you did not mention any books that you have or old coins

Please return the coin that I sent here at by Monday as a New York party wants to see it.

I have some more coins and if I have time I may call and see you in Phila.

Yours Resp.t

David M Scott
